Bob + Diane,

5-19-2010

I am writting you this because I have a hard time talking about what happened at work. I can deal with issues that have to do with me, I get emotional, then I get over it, but when someone can look at me and call my kids "niggers", I can not deal with that. My kids might be a handful but they are mine, and don't deserve to be called that by one of my co-workers. So, I am giving you my 2 week notice.

Thank you for all you have done for me.
